Think With Your Eyes
Graphic Design Fundamentals for Teachers

4–8:00 pm, Wednesday, February 27
CCISD (Conf. Room B), 809 Hecla St., Hancock

What You’ll Learn—

1. Keep it simple: How to curb the impulse to include everything
2. Order is beautiful: How to organize an eye-catching layout
3. Know your letters: How to work with typefaces
4. Know your colors: How to work with color for visual effect

Bring a laptop if you’d like to work on an actual project. Open to all educators and community partners. SB-CEUs: 0.3 available

COST: $30, includes dinner (No charge for LSSI teachers & community partners)
TO REGISTER: contact Loret Roberts at 906-482-0331 or loret@copperisd.org
REGISTRATION DEADLINE: Monday, February 25, 2013

ABOUT THE PRESENTER
Laura Smyth, owner of Smythtype Design, is a graphic artist and writer with over 20 years of experience in promotions, publishing, and designing everything from event posters to highly illustrated books. She is also an adjunct instructor of technology and communication at Finlandia University and Gogebic Community College and a partner in two local publishing companies, Thimbleberry Press and Mudminnow Press.