

Invasive Species as Agents of Global Change

By Erik Lilleskov, Research Ecologist
U.S. Forest Service &
Janet Marr, Biologist
Houghton-Keweenaw Conservation District

FREE
Community Event

Sept. 29th

6:30-8:30 pm

Location:
Room 143
Forestry Bldg.

Find out about invasive species in the Copper Country

- What is the global impact of altered ecosystems?
- Learn how to identify invasive plants of the Western U.P.
- Discover how you can help control their spread and protect our native plants.

