TREMENDOUS TECHNOLOGY NIGHT

Family fun at the Portage Lake District Library in Houghton

Technology — using scientific knowledge to invent machines or devices to make things easier to do.
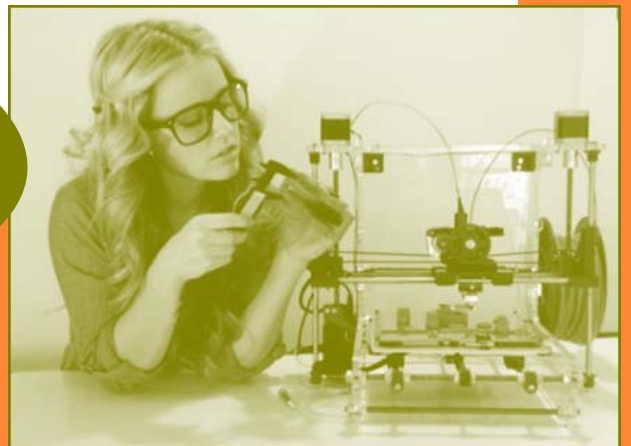

Tuesday, Sept. 24
6:30 - 8:00 pm

Playful Interactive Lessons!

Explore the basics of circuitry & electrical engineering

- Make a Play-Doh® sculpture light up and move
- Design a video game controller using bananas
- Turn your friends into an electronic piano
- Use a paintbrush to make computerized music
- Find out how to design toys using a 3D printer

Learn together!
Open to all K-6 students & families!
FREE !

For information, call the library
at 482-4570 or visit www.pldl.org

Coordinated by the Western U.P. Center for Science, Math & Environmental Education and Michigan Technological University.

Western Upper Peninsula Center for Science, Mathematics and Environmental Education

Michigan Tech
Michigan Technological University