

Teacher Workshops

Project Learning Tree

Project WET

Tuesday, March 3

Workshop Description

Project Learning Tree is a K-8 interdisciplinary guide containing 96 activities for teaching about a variety of environmental science & social studies topics in the classroom and outdoors.

- Activities aligned to MI GLCEs
- Teaches problem-solving and decision-making
- Addresses variety of topics: forests, wildlife, water, air, energy, waste, climate change, invasive species, and more. www.plt.org

Presenter

Joan Chadde, Director, Michigan Tech Center for Science & Environmental Outreach
Chris Hohnholt, Director of Development & Outreach, MTU School of Forest Resources & Environmental Science

Location

Nara Nature Center, US 41, Houghton

Time: 8:30 am – 3:30 pm

Cost: $25 (No charge for LSSI schools).

Participants receive Project Learning Tree K-8 Activity Guide with 96 activities, and lunch.

Credit: SCECHs pending ($10)

Friday, April 24

Workshop Description

NEW Project WET 2.0 (Water Education for Teachers) is a K-12 interdisciplinary guide that features 64 field-tested activities, more than 500 color photographs and illustrations, and information on teaching methods, assessment strategies, and more for the classroom and outdoors. <http://www.projectwet.org/>

- Activities aligned to MI GLCEs, Common Core, and NGSS (in progress).
- 21st-century, cutting-edge water education addresses water quality, watersheds, ground water, management, decision-making, uses.

Presenter

Joan Chadde, Water Resource Specialist, MTU Center for Science & Environ. Outreach

Location:

104 Great Lakes Research Center, MTU (Parking pass provided upon arrival; carpooling encouraged.)

Time: 8:30 am – 3:30 pm

Cost: $35 (No charge for LSSI schools).

Participants receive Project WET K-12 Activity & Curriculum Guide with 64 activities and lunch.

Credit: SCECHs pending ($10)

These workshops are sponsored by the Lake Superior Stewardship Initiative

For More Information about workshops:
Joan Chadde
Email: jchadde@mtu.edu Tel: 487-3341

REGISTER online: Loret Roberts, CCISD
<https://www.solutionwhere.com/ww/ccisd>
Email: loret@copperisd.org Tel: 482-0331